

The Amazon Rainforest Quiz (Grades K-5)

Name _____

Date _____

Multiple Choice

- Habitats are areas that share the same
 - weather
 - plants
 - animals
 - all of the above
- The dinosaurs once lived
 - in the desert
 - in the rainforest
 - none of the above
- The largest rainforest is in
 - South America
 - Africa
 - Asia
 - North America
- The Giant Anteater eats
 - plants
 - only ants
 - ants and other insects

Fill in the Blank

- As their name tells us, rainforests get much more _____ than anywhere else in the world.
- Carnivorous plants eat _____ .

Matching

The Amazon, along with every other tropical rainforest, has four layers. Match the layer with its description.

- | | |
|-------------------------|---------------------------|
| 7. Emergent Layer _____ | a. Small amount of light |
| Canopy _____ | b. The bottom layer |
| Understory _____ | c. More animals live here |
| Forest Floor _____ | d. The highest layer |

True or False

- The Amazon Rainforest has some exotic plants and animals you won't see anywhere else in the world.

True False
- Not only is the Amazon Rainforest wet, it's also very warm, since it's so close to the Equator.

True False
- Tropical rainforests are located only in Africa and Australia.

True False